Great Public Schools for Every Student

Using Standards to Plan for ELL Students

Educator applies knowledge of their state and the national English Language Learner Standards in lesson plans and instructional practice.

Key Method

The educator designs learning opportunities that include both their state and the national English Language Learning Standards and also shows the differentiation of their ELL students’ proficiency levels.

Method Components

The educator will

- Include state and ELL standards in each lesson plan.
- Differentiate lessons for ELLs to provide scaffolding to the next level of proficiency.
- Choose researched strategies to support ELLs at their proficiency levels.
- Accommodate and/or modify for different ELL levels while maintaining rigor.

Submission Guidelines & Evaluation Criteria

To earn the micro-credential, you must receive a passing score in Parts 1 and 3 and receive a proficient score for all components in Part 2.

Part 1. Overview Questions

200 - 250 words per question

Please give context to your situation by answering the following three questions.

What do you see as your strengths in the practice of standards-based instruction?

What are some strategies that you already use that you see as valuable for instructing ELLs?

What is your instructional experience working with ELLs?

- Passing: Answer each question completely from your personal knowledge and instructional experience. Writing should be well-organized.

Part 2. Work Examples / Artifacts

To earn this micro-credential, please submit the following artifacts:

Artifact 1: Identification of ELL Students in Classroom
A table that shows the various levels and stages of the ELLs in the classroom where the lessons will be delivered.

Artifact 2: Lesson Plans
An instructional unit with three lesson plans that includes:

- State and ELL Standards
- Demonstrates differentiation through the use of appropriate instructional strategies for beginner, intermediate, and high ELLs.
- Rationale for the strategies and how they will be implemented.

Artifact 3: Evidence of Student Work
Sample of ELL student writing from one of the lessons that includes:

- Teacher comments and feedback that relates to the standards.
- Opportunities for student re-assessment or correction and submission of same.

Reflection

400 - 500 words

How do you see the readings you have done and the state and national ELL Standards affecting your instructional practice in the future regarding the ELLs in your classroom? What are some changes you will make as you challenge ELL students while differentiating and maintaining rigor?

- Passing: The reflection shows new understanding and includes specific examples of changes that will be made to support ELL students.
