Great Public Schools for Every Student

Reflective Practice

Educator thinks deeply and carefully about who they are and how they lead.

Key Method

The educator uses the Learn-Design-Do-Reflect Cycle to deepen their understanding of their reflective practices and then creates and implements a plan to engage colleagues (and/or a diverse range of stakeholders) in reflecting on both the educators’ and the colleagues’ roles and responsibilities.

Method Components

Reflective Practice for Teacher Leaders

Teacher leaders use feedback and research to improve their practice and leadership skills. They continually reflect on their growth, role, and responsibilities as a teacher leader to bring about change. They make strategic plans that are informed by data and reflective analysis.

Learn-Design-Do-Reflect Cycle

The Learn-Design-Do-Reflect Cycle is a tool used in the NEA Teacher Leadership Institute to support the development of teacher leadership. The following descriptors will help you understand your participation in each step of the process.

- Learn: Delve into resources; explore the needs of your school, district or state; and self-assess in order to gain a deep understanding of research, best practice, the needs of your educational setting, and your own professional learning needs.
- Design: Design an action plan that addresses at least one of the needs of your school, district, or state.
- Do: Implement your plan and collect information and evidence about the challenges and successes of your implementation.
- Reflect: Take time to reflect on the outcomes and the process of implementation of your action plan and consider next steps.

Reflective Practice and Teacher Leadership

According to the NEA Teacher Leadership Competencies (2018), developing your teacher leadership in the area of Reflective Practice includes the following (see Resources section for link to the Complete Guide):

Emerging Level

- Acknowledge yourself as a teacher leader; also acknowledge leadership areas in need of further growth.
Model strong, reflective instructional and leadership practice.
Understand the role of data and reflective analysis in practice.
Search for purposeful leadership opportunities both inside and outside of the classroom.

Developing Level

- Help to create conditions to encourage reflection among colleagues and administrators.
- Engage in leadership opportunities both inside and outside of the classroom.
- Reflect on your growth, role, and responsibilities as a teacher leader to bring about change.
- Make strategic plans that are informed by data and reflective analysis.

Performing Level

- Encourage a broad and diverse range of stakeholders to reflect deeply on their roles and responsibilities within instruction, policy, association, and other facets of teaching and leading.
- Develop and implement strategies and/or policies to promote growth, improvement, and reflection.
- Support others in understanding and using data and reflection to drive instructional practice, policy, and organizational decisions.

Transforming Level

- Help systems to function with a culture of mindful and meaningful reflection.
- Lead the development and implementation of large-scale instructional, policy, and organizational ideas to incorporate growth and reflection.
- Lead the collection and analysis of data to support the cultural shift that incorporates the cycle of reflection as a consistent, intentional, and regular practice.

Types of Reflective Practice Leadership Plans

- Improve practice and professional growth by using data analysis or SMART goals.
- Use data and reflection to develop strategic plans for growth.
- Employ a variety of communication methods, such as cognitive coaching cycles, communication logs, emails, and/or conversation maps.
- Engage a broad and diverse group of stakeholders to assess and reflect on their role(s) in association, instruction, policy leadership, and decision-making through conversations, journaling, blogs, or other forms of communication.
- Help establish policies and procedures to encourage colleagues to become reflective practitioners.
- Utilize data to develop and implement a systematic cycle of reflection to drive cultural shifts and decision-making about instructional practices and leadership roles.

Submission Guidelines & Evaluation Criteria

To earn the micro-credential, you must receive a passing evaluation for parts 1 and 3 and a score of “Proficient” in part 2.
Part 1. Overview Questions

350 - 500 words

Please answer the following contextual questions to help our assessor understand your current situation. Please do not include any information that will make you identifiable to your reviewers.

1. What is your professional mission and vision for teacher leadership?
2. Describe your professional learning goals for completing this micro-credential.
3. Describe the professional context for earning this micro-credential?
   • Number of years in education, subject area, etc.
   • School/community e.g., rural, urban, suburban, school level, student/community demographics, socio-economic data, etc.
   • Share any additional information that may help someone understand your context.
   • Describe your current roles and general experience teacher leadership at the school, district and/or state level.

   Passing: Professional mission and vision clearly states what the educator hopes to achieve in their career and what success will look like when achieved. Professional context is reasonable and accurate and includes specific professional learning goals as an outcome of completing this micro-credential.

Part 2. Work Examples / Artifacts

To earn this micro-credential, please submit the following five artifacts as evidence of your learning. Please do not include any information that will make you or your students identifiable to your reviewers.

Artifact 1: Teacher Leadership Circle Map
(See template in Resources section.)

Fill in the Circle Map using the template in the Resources section or draw your own on chart paper.

Directions for Circle Map

- Center Circle: Core Theme/Belief

Use page 5 of the NEA Teacher Leadership Competencies Booklet (see Resources section) to identify the Core Belief/Theme that resonates with you.

- Middle Circle: Context

Synthesize the information you gathered in Part 1. You may include any other relevant contextual information to guide your thinking and recording for the middle circle:

- Grade level
- School
District (suburban/rural/ urban)

Colleagues

Site/district administration

Teacher Leadership culture

Demographics (school, community)

Outer Circle: Needs

After identifying your teacher leadership context, identify and record the needs of your school and/or district in relationship to Reflective Practice in the outer circle. Consider the following guiding questions as you identify your contextual needs:

- What are the needs of my students?
- What inequities might they have experienced?
- What resources are needed to address these inequities?
- What are the needs of the community?
- How does the school address the needs of the community?
- What are the needs of my school/district?
- What are the needs of my colleagues/my association?
- How do the needs of my colleagues affect the classroom, school, and district?
- What are the needs of my local association?
- How do the needs of my association affect me and my colleagues?

Artifact 2: Review

Connect your Teacher Leader Circle Map to the Reflective Practice Competency by answering the following questions (50–150 words or 3–5 bullet points each):

1. What might your role be as a teacher leader to positively impact the identified Reflective Practice needs of your stakeholders (students, school, district, association), based on your context and grounded in your core belief/theme?
2. What might your role be as a teacher leader to inspire and support other potential teacher leaders in effective Reflective Practice, based on your context and grounded in your core belief/theme?

Artifact 3: Design

Use the Teacher Leadership Reflective Practice Competencies to design an activity or action that addresses an identified need from your Leadership Circle Map.

Complete and upload one of the following design templates:

- Option 1: 2018–Current Teacher Leadership Institute Fellows Action Plan Template. (See template in Resources section or use the one you created in your state cohort.)
- Option 2: Action/Design Plan Template for non-Teacher Leadership Institute Fellows. (See template in Resources section.)

Artifact 4: Do (part 1)

Upload three different artifacts that show evidence of implementation of your action plan annotated with descriptions (20–50 words each).

These artifacts may include:

- Website
- Newsletter
- Emails
- Recorded webinars
- Presentations
- Emails to/from participants
- Online forums (screengrabs of conversations)
- Completed website
- Products developed during the process
- Artifacts from Reflective Practice like journal entries, blogs...
- Voice-recorded messages for phone lists
- Group chats/text messages

The description should include:

- Time/date
- Number of participants
- Purpose of artifact and how it was used.

Artifact 5: Feedback from Participants – Do (part 2)

Obtain feedback from at least two stakeholders in attendance.

Use these prompts to obtain feedback to serve as evidence. Your chosen participants should respond to each prompt in 2–3 sentences or 2–3 bulleted points.

- How did the teacher leader engage you in Reflective Practice?
- What were the intended outcomes? To what degree were the outcomes achieved?
- What did you gain from participating in this experience?
- If the teacher leader were to implement this plan again, what could be done differently? Why?
- How did the teacher leader address diversity, equity, and cultural competence during this activity?

Part 3. Reflection

400 - 500 words

Please answer the following reflective questions. Please do not include any information that will make you identifiable to your reviewers.

- How will your knowledge of Reflective Practice impact your leadership work with others?
- How will you continue to lead learning activities to enhance the practice of others at various levels of leadership?
- What are your next steps to continue your growth as a teacher leader?

Passing: Reflection provides evidence that this activity has had a positive impact on the teacher leaders as well as on others in the professional context of earning this micro-credential. Specific examples are cited directly from personal or work-related experiences to support claims. Also included are specific actionable steps that demonstrate how new learning will be integrated into future practices.
